
NAME:

DOB:

SEX:

Attention: The MRI room contains a very strong magnet. Please empty out your pockets and remove your jewelry watch, credit cards, safety pins, pocketknives, dentures, retainers, and metal items. Before you are allowed to enter the staff needs to interview you and the following question needs to be answered.

DO YOU HAVE ANY OF THE FOLLOWING IN YOUR BODY?

- ☐ YES ☐ NO Pacemaker, wires or defibrillator? PLEASE SEE RECEPTIONIST
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Brain or aneurysm clip?
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Ear or eye implants.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Electrical stimulators or infusion pumps.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Metal fragments, shrapnel, bullets, or pellets.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Magnetic implants of any kind.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Coil, filter or wire in the blood vessels.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Artificial limb or joint.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO False teeth (removable). Retainers or braces.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Diaphragm or intrauterine devices.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Orthopedic hardware of any kind (screws or plates).
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Hearing aids.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Any metal or foreign body.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Transdermal skin patch.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Have you ever had an operation or surgery? Please List All:

-
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Are you pregnant or possibly pregnant? PLEASE SEE RECEPTIONIST
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Have you ever been a machinist, metalworker or welder.
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Have you ever been injured by a metallic foreign body in your eye which was not removed?
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Are you breast-feeding at this time?

As part of the exam the radiologist may deem it advisable to give you an IV injection of a contrast agent containing gadolinium. This injection may help the physician more accurately diagnose your condition. Although gadolinium contrast agents have been used have rarely been reported.

- ☐ YES ☐ NO Do you, to the best of your knowledge suffer from hemolytic anemia?
- ☐ YES ☐ NO Do you have a history of kidney or renal abnormalities?

SIGNATURE: _____ DATE: _____ TECHNICIAN _____